

My Dance Class
At Cincinnati Ballet

OTTO M. BUDIG
COMMUNITY STUDIO

At Cincinnati Ballet, my dance class is in the Otto M. Budig Community Studio.

For every class, I will wear a t-shirt, leggings and socks or ballet shoes.

Before I enter Cincinnati Ballet,
I will put on my mask.

I will wear my mask the entire time I am inside the Cincinnati Ballet.

Studio Rules

I will not touch other people. I will keep my hands to myself.

I will wait my turn.

I will look at the teacher when they show me dance moves.

I will not bring food or drinks into the studio.

I will ask before I leave the studio.

I will ask for a break if I need to take a break.

I will listen to my volunteer.

I will follow the studio rules.

My volunteer will meet me in the lounge and take me to the studio.

I will enter the classroom and sit on a colored dot.
The dots will be in a circle.

Once everyone is in the classroom, we will start to move our bodies and dance on our dot.

I will follow the teacher.

The first part of class is called a warm-up.

After we all dance together, I will be invited to dance in the center of the circle during this time. Everyone will get a turn if they want it.

After the warm-up, I will learn ballet words.
I will dance ballet moves like plies, tendus and balances.
This is the ballet technique part of class.

I will go across the floor. I will wait my turn.

I may jump, march, or walk on my toes.

I will return to the center. We will all dance together.

We may learn a new dance or use our imaginations to try something new.

I will sit down on the floor and stretch my body.

I will say thank you and goodbye.

My volunteer will walk me to my parent or caregiver in the lounge.
I had a great class!
