

JOSE CARAYOL

International Master Teacher

Jose Carayol is an international ballet master and judge. He trained on full scholarship at the Real Conservatorio Profesional de Danza de Madrid in his native Spain. He was an apprentice artist at Ballet Carmen Roche on their national and international tours, which led him to acclaimed roles with Ballet Iñaki Urlezaga, SemperOper Ballet and the world-renowned Royal Opera House in London. His career took him all over the world performing and mastering the ballet repertoire, including Swan Lake, The Sleeping Beauty, Coppélia, Don

Quixote, Carmen, Paquita, and Cinderella.

Mr. Carayol's extensive knowledge in different ballet schools, techniques and styles, and his attentive eye for detail have made him a desirable international master teacher, coach and judge. He is part of the panel of judges at Youth America Grand Prix and has taught master classes around the country. He continues his education in pedagogy and teaching practices by attending seminars and teaching courses at the Royal Ballet School and American Ballet Theater. Mr. Carayol is a fully certified and affiliated teacher of the American Ballet Theater National Training Curriculum and part of their ABT® Project Plie. He hopes to inspire young dancers around the country and spread his love for the art of classical ballet.
